

Riley Durkin

Sacred Heart Major Seminary, MI
St. Stephen's Catholic Church, Larimore, ND

I was born in Grand Forks, North Dakota and raised in Inkster. I spent my formative years going to church in Larimore, ND but went to school at Midway High School. I graduated from there in 2011 and went on the next summer to teach vacation bible school in the Diocese of Winona, MN. It was there that I started to seriously consider my call to the priesthood. That fall I enrolled at NDSU studying Broadcast Journalism and Political Science. While I really enjoyed my studies, I knew God was calling me to something different. In April of 2012, I turned in my application and was accepted as a seminarian in June. I am now studying at Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit, MI.

Do your family and friends think it is a good idea that you're considering becoming a priest? They are very supportive and want nothing more than for me to be happy.

Do you ever have any fun? What do you do in your free time? Being in the cultural hub of Detroit, there is always something going on. Some days I enjoy just going for a drive to clear my head and explore the city.

If you were not a priest, what do you think you would be? I would definitely finish my Broadcasting degree and work in the media.

How many brothers and sisters do you have? I have one younger sister and one younger brother.

What is your favorite TV program? I don't watch a lot of TV, but when I do like to make a point to watch the news and keep up with current events.

What is your favorite singer or music group? I'm not picky about my music tastes. I will listen to whatever is on the radio.

Do you ever get bored while studying to be a priest? Very often. That is usually fixed pretty quickly however, as there is always something I should be doing.

What do you enjoy the most while studying to be a priest? I enjoy the support I get from all the other men around me. In my hall we have a DJ, a reporter, a computer programmer, and even a doctor and a lawyer! But we are all going down the same path with the same goal in mind.

Who helped you decide to become a priest? My former pastor, Fr. Jim Goodwin, provided an excellent example of the priesthood as well as a much needed nudge in the right direction. He is still very encouraging to me.

What do you think the best thing will be about being a priest? Celebrating the sacraments and being a much needed light to the world.

What is your favorite quote or saying? I think this also would double as my favorite Bible verse. Mine is Matt. 21:22 "Whatever you ask for in prayer, with faith, you will receive."

What is one other thing you would like to tell people about yourself? I would say that I really enjoy cooking and baking, as well as spending time with loved ones.